

CaDDANZ

Capturing the Diversity Dividend
of Aotearoa/New Zealand

Living with 'Difference'

Conceptualising Urban Diversity

He Rākau Tau Matua
Pathways, Diversity and Inclusion Conference
8-9 February 2018

THE UNIVERSITY OF WAIKATO
Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato

MASSEY
UNIVERSITY
TE KUNENGA KI PŪREHURŌA

UNIVERSITY OF NEW ZEALAND

Contact Zones

At the market

At the bus stop

In the library

Strangers and Others

FREE SAUSAGE SIZZLE

for those who are in need of a feed during this cold winter.

WHERE: OUTSIDE SUPER SAVER (near the Taphouse bar) IN AVONDALE

WHEN: THIS FRIDAY NIGHT 15TH

TIME: 5PM ONWARDS, UNTIL FOOD RUNS OUT

Diversity discourses

NORTHCOTE SHOPS

AVONDALE

Living Together

‘We need to find ways of co-existing in these [shared] spaces, from the next-door neighbor to the street, neighbourhood, city and region’ (Sandercock 2000: 13).

‘Mixed neighbourhoods need to be accepted as the spatially open, culturally heterogeneous, and socially variegated spaces that they are, not imagined as future cohesive or integrated communities’ (Amin 2002, 972).

CaDDANZ

Capturing the Diversity Dividend
of Aotearoa/New Zealand

j.terruhn@massey.ac.nz

THE UNIVERSITY OF WAIKATO
Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato

Motu

MASSEY
UNIVERSITY
TE KUNenga KI PŪREHUORA

UNIVERSITY OF NEW ZEALAND